

²⁰On that same day, December 18, the Lord sent this second message to Haggai: ²¹“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overthrow royal thrones and destroy the power of foreign kingdoms. I will overturn their chariots and riders. The horses will fall, and their riders will kill each other.

²³“But when this happens, says the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, I will honor you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant. I will make you like a signet ring on my finger, says the Lord, for I have chosen you. I, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!” Haggai 2:19-23, NLT

Like the prophets before and after him, Haggai is keenly aware that...

- God’s not _____

“For we are God’s masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.” Ephesians 2:10, NLT

- He has a _____

“And this is God’s plan: Both Gentiles and Jews who believe the Good News share equally in the riches inherited by God’s children.” Ephesians 3:6, NLT

- Great is His _____

“God is faithful.” 1 Corinthians 10:13, NLT

“The people of God, living in the presence of God experiencing the peace of God.”

- Our response is _____

“Choices are the stuff that life is made of. They will either make us or break us. They have the potential to cause great joy or much regret. They can become our greatest asset or our greatest liability.”

*Our choices reflect our values. Our values establish our priorities.
Our priorities determine our destinations.*
